Feb 24th — TRA

Mar 9th — Mark Scoular Camp Carson news

Jeff Olsen, former and acting President for the month of February opened the meeting on this partly sunny, cold 23 degree day.. Jeff led us in the invocation, pledge and creed too.

Returnees-Bob Shetler, Ron E., Michael Burk, Shaun, and maybe a few more I missed.

Sunshine Report-Michael Burk gave us a positive report on his father Gary, stated he is feeling better and for the most part doing well, keep him in your prayers.

Announcements: Board Meeting next Tuesday, February 16th at the Blue/Gold Room-Noon-ONB, everyone is invited to attend.

Sarge-Michael Burk received conscious money from Jeff, Ron, Sally, Ken Dennis, Bob and Shaun.

One table answered the Trivia questions correctly-the 4th most populated state in the US is Houston, TX returned it to the club, thanks Ron!

Doc Bender gave us the Medical Minute on Idiopathic Pulmonary Fibrosis, he shared that there is not a known cause and very hard to diagnose, recently researchers have discovered symptoms include 2 new medications. shortness of breath. chest discomfort. coughing, etc. Doc advised having a chest scan done every 5 years, Thanks Doc!!

Financial Support for

Our speaker for the day was Mr. Ben Shoulders from Old National Bank. Ben works in the Commercial Lending Dept. and just recently decided to run for Vanderburgh County Commissioner. Ben and his wife have 3 children. Ben has over 13 years of banking experience and is a graduate of Indiana University. The commissioner is responsible for overlooking Burdette Park, Old Courthouse, bridges, county roads and numerous other projects that arise during his or her term.

Thank You Karen Morris for sending up a speaker at the last minute, Ben did a great job!

See you at the next meeting!

Dan Phillips
