It was our 101st Presidential installation. We went big time this year to Biaggi's Italian Restaurant.

Rich Hawley was the MC who tried to inject some humor into the evening. His google attempt to find jokes was somewhat successful. He was a little confused thinking that incoming President Emily Parker was a banker. No..no...she works for Centerpointe our utility company. That did not stop Rich from telling some banker jokes. He did find some Insurance jokes for outgoing president Josh Hawley. Some where funny but some fell flat. I will say he was

We socialized starting at 6pm waiting for all to arrive. Biaggi's bread is delicious, and many

Ron Eberhart had the duty of installing the officers. Emily Parker, President, Todd Wahl Secretary, Ron Eberhart, Secretary. Ron thanked Tim Deisher for his many years of service to our club as a board member. Ron welcomed Karen Morris back to the board to support Emily with some girl power. After the officers were sworn in (including Todd Wahl, Gary Burk, Josh Paulson, Karen Morris, Bob Shetler), Rich presented outgoing president, Josh Paulson with an Appreciation plaque, Engraved Gavel, past President's pin and a gift card. Josh then thanked everyone for their help during his year as president. Rich then welcomed Emily as president and presented her with her official president's pin and the traveling president pin which is given to each new president who passes it on at the conclusion of their year. Emily gave a very inspiring speech to the members about what is really important in our life. "What if we woke up today with only the things we thanked God for yesterday." Very thought provoking!! Think about it.
